

Six Tips to Maximize Your Microsoft365 Investment

Not getting the expected ROI from your Microsoft 365 (M365) investment ? No problem. By leveraging, these tips you can get the most out of your M365 investment and increase your productivity and collaboration.

1

Use all the tools available

Don't limit yourself to just the applications you are familiar with. Explore all the tools available in M365 and learn how they can benefit you and your team.

Advanced features of SharePoint, Power Automate, Power BI, Power Apps, and

Teams can see a 50-200% ROI over three years

2

Collaborate effectively

Companies that used SharePoint and OneDrive see a three-year ROI of 334%.

M365 provides powerful collaboration tools like Teams and SharePoint. Use these tools to collaborate effectively with your team, regardless of where they are located.

3

Automate workflows

With M365, you can automate workflows using tools like Power Automate. This can help you save time and streamline processes.

Companies that automate workflows in Microsoft 365 can see a 135% ROI over three years.

4

Secure your data

The average cost of a data breach in the United States in 2022 was $9.44 million.

With M365 robust security features like Azure Active Directory and Azure Information Protection you protect your data, ensure compliance with regulations and save millions.

5

Stay up to date

Microsoft is constantly adding new features and functionality to M365.

Stay up to date with the latest updates

Companies that adopt Microsoft 365 latest features reported a three-year ROI of 162%

6

Integrate with other tools

M365 integrates with a variety of other tools, including third-party applications.

Look for opportunities to integrate M365 with other tools you use to increase productivity and efficiency.

This helps save time and money.

To know how can CCS help you realize ROI with M365 investment,

Contact us today.